

India Pavilion at BANGLADESH ELECTRIC VEHICLES MOBILITY EXHIBITION 2024

Explore new opportunities!

7 – 9 November, 2024 | Dhaka, Bangladesh

Concurrent Show:

About the Exhibition

1st ever International Exhibition on Electric Vehicles (EVs) titled "EV Expo Bangladesh 2024" is scheduled to be held from 7 – 9 November, 2024. The EV Expo in Bangladesh offers several benefits for various stakeholders involved in the electric vehicle (EV) industry. The EV Expo showcases the latest advancements in EV technologies, components, charging infrastructure, and renewable energy integration. It allows participants to explore cutting-edge solutions, gain insights into market trends, and stay updated with the latest developments in the EV sector.

The electric vehicle (EV) industry in Bangladesh is gaining momentum as the country aims to transition to sustainable and environmentally friendly transportation solutions. The government of Bangladesh has been actively promoting the adoption of electric vehicles. It has implemented various incentives and policies to support EV manufacturing, import, and usage. These include tax exemptions, reduced customs duties, and favorable loan facilities for EV manufacturers and buyers. The demand for EVs is gradually increasing in Bangladesh. Individuals, businesses, and government organizations are showing interest in electric two-wheelers, three-wheelers, and cars due to their cost-effectiveness, reduced environmental impact, and long-term savings on fuel costs. The EV industry in Bangladesh is at a nascent stage but holds great potential for growth. With supportive government policies, expanding charging infrastructure, and increasing awareness among consumers, the country is poised to embrace sustainable mobility and contribute to a greener future.

Economic scenario of Bangladesh

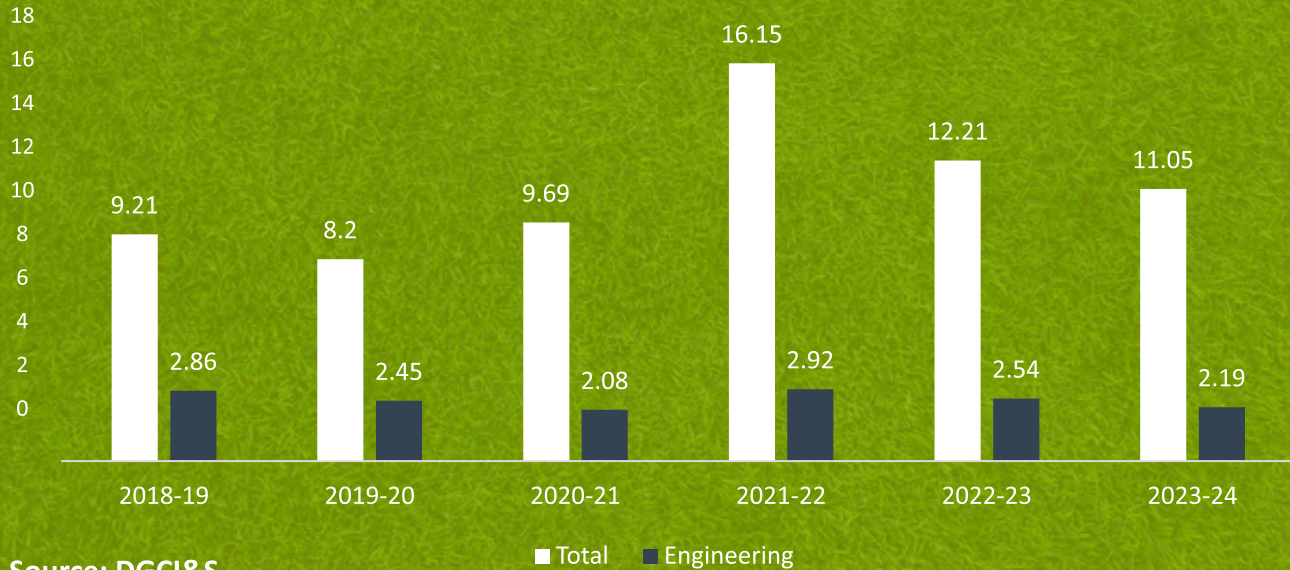

Bangladesh maintained a strong track record of growth even during the periods of global uncertainty – it maintained growth above 5% since 2005 which came down only in 2020 due to the pandemic and again regained momentum in the coming years. The country is expected to graduate from its LDC status by 2026. IMF predicts that in 2024 Bangladesh will grow at around 6% in 2024 and will continue in a growth path thereafter.

Opportunity for Engineering Exports to Bangladesh

Bangladesh has gained momentum in the recent years and has become the second largest economy of South Asia. As the neighbouring country of India with a common border of length 4096 kms. This makes Bangladesh an important destination for Indian engineering exports. Some of the major industries in Bangladesh are that of textile, agriculture and food processing. Bangladesh is developing its infrastructure which would also require machineries and electrical components. There is significant scope in automobile, two and three wheelers, auto components. Since India Pavilion at BIMOX 2024 will be EEPC India's maiden venture in the Maritime and Offshore Industrial Sector and the show poised to become one of the flagship overseas event catering to the sector, as it would be helpful for Indian engineering exporters across sectors to expand their presence in Bangladeshi market.
