About the Exhibition

World Health Expo (WHX) Dubai 2027 is the world's largest healthcare business and sourcing platform. Scheduled from 25 - 28 January 2027, the exhibition will bring together manufacturers, distributors, healthcare institutions, government agencies, investors, and healthcare professionals from around the world. Building on the 50-year legacy of Arab Health, WHX serves as a strategic gateway to the Middle East, Africa, Europe, and CIS markets. The exhibition provides an ideal platform for launching new products, identifying distributors, expanding exports, strengthening international partnerships, and understanding emerging healthcare technologies and market trends.

Why you should participate

- Extensive product launches across medical devices, diagnostics, digital health and AI-enabled healthcare
- Strong participation from government healthcare authorities, hospital groups and international buying delegations
- Multiple CME-accredited conferences, innovation forums and networking programmes
- Significant business opportunities across the Middle East, Africa and international healthcare markets
- The exhibition reinforced Dubai's position as a leading global hub for healthcare trade, innovation and investment.
